

W. Scott Henwood

Of Counsel
Atlanta Office

P: 404-586-6614
F: 678-539-1577
E: wsh@hallboothsmith.com

Overview

William Scott Henwood was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. He spent his early professional career in various positions with the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals of Georgia including the prestigious position of Reporter of Decisions. Upon his retirement from these Courts, he joined the firm of Hall Booth Smith, P.C. as Of Counsel and now plays an active role in the management of the firm.

Along with his ongoing duties at HBS, Mr. Henwood is also actively involved with the country of Georgia Consulate and the Atlanta-Tbilisi Sister City Committee. Mr. Henwood has taught, and lectured, at various law schools in the country of Georgia, primarily in the areas of American Legal History and Constitutional Law. James magazine in 2014 and 2016 listed Mr. Henwood as one of Georgia's most influential attorneys.

Presentations

Visiting Professor of Law, Ilia State University School of Law, 2010 – 2012, Foundations of American Legal Institutions.

Full Professor of Law, Ilia State University School of Law, 2013 - 2014, American Legal History, I & II.

Honorary Professor of Law, SEU Georgian International University, 2015, Election Law.

W. Scott Henwood has lectured at various ministries and universities in the country of Georgia from 2010 through 2015.

Education

Georgia State University, B.B.A., 1976

Woodrow Wilson College of Law, J.D., 1978

Admitted

Georgia (all Courts)

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Georgia

U.S. Court of Military Appeals

U.S. Supreme Court

W. SCOTT
HENWOOD

Membership

State Bar of Georgia

Member, Board to Determine Fitness of Bar Applicants

Chairman, Committee on the Judiciary, State Bar of Georgia, 2008

Fellow, Lawyers Foundation of Georgia, Inc.

Vice President and Trustee, Georgia Legal History Foundation, Inc.

Lawyers Club of Atlanta, Inc. (President, 2003-2004)

Old War Horse Lawyers Club, Inc.

The Advocates, Ltd. (President, 2005-2006)

Burns Club of Atlanta, Inc. (President, 2008-2009)

Association of Reporters of Judicial Decisions (President, 1988-1989)

Master of the Bench, The Lamar Inn of Court, Emory University School of Law

Member, Sesquicentennial Commission, Supreme Court of Georgia

Member, Centennial Committee, Court of Appeals of Georgia

Publications

“An Insider’s Reflection on Appellate Practice”

“Appellate Tips for the Everyday Practitioner”

“Georgia Appellate Jurisdiction: Fixed or Moving Target” co-authored with Alex Battey

“Interlocutory Applications - Why Are They So Difficult to Get Granted?”

“Evidence,” Mercer Law Review, Fall 2010, Fall 2011, co-authored with John E. Hall, Jr.

“Post-Judgment Motions and the Appellate Process in Georgia”

Awards

AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell

James magazine, 2014 and 2016 Most Influential Attorneys in Georgia

H | B | S

HALL BOOTH SMITH, P.C.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Serving to Achieve Excellence