

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name	Tedo G. Dundua
Date and Place of Birth	Georgia, Tbilisi, August 1, 1961
Sex	Male
Nationality	Georgian
Citizenship	Citizen of Georgia
Address	71a, I. Costava Str., Appart.N38, Tbilisi 0171 Georgia
Telephone	(99532) 335172 Home, (99532)222108 Work, E-mail: teddundua@yahoo.com
Education	Ivane Javakhishvili University of Tbilisi, Faculty of History 1978-1983
Languages	Native – Georgian, English – Excellent, Russian – Excellent, French – Fair
Degrees	Candidate of Science in History (Ph.D.), 1992; Doctor of Science, 1995
Present Appointment	Professor, Institute of the Georgian History, Faculty of the Humanities, Ivane Javakhishvili University of Tbilisi. Vice-Dean, Faculty of the Humanities, Ivane Javakhishvili University of Tbilisi
Former Appointments:	The Department of the Georgian History, Ivane Javakhishvili University of Tbilisi. Laboratory Assistant. Researcher. Teacher. Assistant Professor. Faculty of History/Humanities. Vice-Dean
Other Appointments:	History Teachers Association of Georgia (member of EuroClio), President (former)
Grants:	1998 Oxford Colleges Hospitality Scheme for East European Scholars 1998 – 1999 Soros Grant 1999 – 2001 NATO Fellowship 1999 University Exchange Scheme – University of Saarland 2005 – DAAD Fellowship, University of Tuebingen Presidential Scholarship (1997-2001)
Conferences:	1999 March. Athens. The Mediterranean and the Caucasus. Paper. 1999 December. Vienna. Christianization of the Caucasus. Paper 2005 September. Nieborow (Poland). Roman Coins Outside the Empire. Paper 1997 March. Budapest. General assembly of EuroClio, Delegate 1997 September. Pécs. EuroClio Conference, Delegate
Training:	2001 February. Cairo University, Archaeology and Restoration